Title Attendance Priorities for Transfer Students – Magnet Schools

1. Overview – Enrollment in magnet schools will occur in the two phases listed below. Magnet school information, guidelines and application are available at www.district196.org/MagnetSchools.
2. Enrollment Process
 - 2.1 Phase One: Attendance Area Enrollment – The following students will be enrolled to attend the magnet school. No magnet school application is necessary.
 - 2.1.1 Students who live in the attendance area of the magnet school they want to attend.
 - 2.1.2 Students who are District 196 residents and attend daycare in the attendance area of a magnet school, in accordance with Policy 502, Student Transfers.
 - 2.2 Phase Two: Reserved Enrollment – Placements will be made from the following groups, in the order listed, using a random selection process, alternating by gender. If space no longer remains when a name is drawn, the student will be added to a waiting list for his or her choice school. A magnet school application is necessary.
 - 2.2.1 District residents who live outside the magnet school attendance area but have one or more siblings currently enrolled there.
 - 2.2.2 Cedar Park, Diamond Path, Echo Park, Glacier Hills and Oak Ridge attendance area students applying for a magnet school other than their own.
 - 2.2.3 Applicants to Cedar Park, Echo Park and Oak Ridge from a non-title District 196 attendance school.
 - 2.2.4 All remaining applicants who are District 196 residents.
 - 2.2.5 Siblings of current magnet school students who do not reside in District 196.
 - 2.2.6 All remaining applicants who do not reside in District 196.
