District 196 Community Education's Districtwide Advisory Council Seeks Members

District 196 Community Education's Districtwide Advisory Council (CEDAC) is currently taking applications for residents, business owners, students and teachers interested in serving a three year term on the Advisory Council. The Council meets five times annually for approximately two hours. The Community Education Districtwide Advisory Council makes recommendations on items pertaining to finance, programs, classes, policies, services, communication and facilities.

CEDAC is made up of twenty-two District 196 citizens, who assist Community Education staff in fulfilling its mission of providing quality lifelong learning opportunities for all residents. For application and information visit www.district196.org/ce/advcoun.cfm, email communityed@district196.org or call 651-423-7721.
