Eagle Bluff Environmental Learning Center

- Three-day extended field trip
- January 28 – January 30
- Cost of $125 per student or chaperone for buses, food, lodging, and instruction
- Set along a bluff on the Root River near Lanesboro, Minnesota
- Hands-on experiences in Environmental Science and Adventure/Challenge Topics
Possible Classes

• Adventure Ropes
• Orienteering
• Cross Country Skiing
• Winter Survival
• Oneota Native American Life

• Animal Signs
• Birds
• Forest Ecology
• Archery
• Snowshoeing
• Pioneer Life
Adventure Ropes

- Elevated Towers
- Various Challenges
- Peer Coaching and Support Skiing
- Builds self-confidence
- Pushes limits
Pioneer Life

• Practice pioneer skills
• Experience challenges of pioneer living
• All hands-on learning
• Discusses pioneer heritage
Winter Survival

- Shelter Building
- Fire Starting
- Site Selection
- Teamwork
- Necessity of a Positive Attitude
- Survival Priorities
Wildlife Ecology

- Habitats
- Predator/Prey
- Animal Signs
- Carrying Capacity
- Role of Humans in Conservation
Eagle Bluff Facilities

- Education Building
- Dorm
- Cafeteria
- Grounds/Woods/Fields
Social Interaction

- Learning to live together
- Helping others
- Listening
- Leadership
- Tolerance
- Encouragement
Raptor Program

- Habitats
- Predator/Prey
- Live raptors
Conservation Program

- Food Waste
- Recycling
- Heat and Light Conservation
More Info

Go to the Eagle Bluff website at:

www.eagle-bluff.org

or

Contact your child’s homeroom teacher.