Features

Each day will provide a combination of individualized and group instruction as well as fun, competitive events which will challenge and test participant's skills.

Week-long camps include:

- Age-appropriate instruction
- Strong emphasis on fundamentals
- Personal skills evaluation
- Leagues and Contests with daily and weekly Champions
- Special awards
- Camp T-shirt and Lightning Basketball

Clinics include:

- Position-specific drills and skill instruction
- Drill-intensive instruction and training.
- Personalized instruction

Note: Clinics are designed for intensive instruction and skill development. These are for players who are serious in their development as ballplayers. These clinics are excellent opportunities to learn and develop individual skills and habits.

Miscellaneous Information

Equipment: All players should bring basketball shoes and a water bottle, and be dressed appropriately.

All 5th-9th grade camp participants should bring a lunch to eat during the noon break. No players will be allowed to leave the camp over the break.

Lightning Basketball Camp Staff

Head Coach Mark Gerber, who has been a part of the Lightning Staff and a camp director for the past 12 years, will be the organizer. This valuable staff includes Bill Olson (10th Grade Coach), who finished his 8th season with the Lightning has been coaching and directing camps for over 25 years and brings his passion and love for teaching basketball to the camps. Coach Brian Silk (Varsity Assistant), our post player specialist, will be working at all camps. The ever popular Bill Gerber, father of Coach Gerber makes his annual visit as well. Present and former Lightning players, including Darren Kent, BJ Viau, Seth Jonker, Johnie Sanders will also be coaching and in attendance throughout the camps and clinics. Dave Thomforde and Dan Holle (9th Grade Coaches) will be assisting and directing stations.

The Staff hopes you make plans this summer to join us for fun, competition, and learning at the Lightning Basketball Camps and Clinics. Don't miss out on the fun in 2009.

We look forward to seeing you!
