

Student name: _____

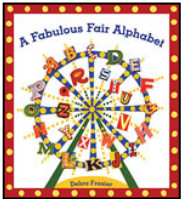

Teacher: _____ Grade _____

MEET THE AUTHOR!

DEBRA FRASIER

MONDAY, MARCH 13

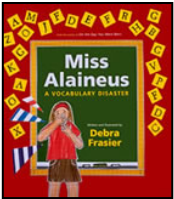

Author Debra Frasier will be visiting Highland Elementary on Monday, March 13. If you would like to preorder copies of her books to have signed (first names only, and please print), please complete this form and return to your teacher before Wednesday, March 1. Please make checks payable to Highland Elementary.

of copies _____ Please autograph first book for _____

@$17.00 and second book for _____

Twenty-six letters follow the arc of a day at the fair. Add your photos on the blank page for a scrapbook keepsake!

of copies _____ Please autograph first book for _____

@$8.00 and second book for _____

Mistaking the word "miscellaneous" leads to a classroom catastrophe of embarrassment, and a creative leap that surprises everyone. Vocabulary hilarity!

of copies _____ Please autograph first book for _____

@17.00 and second book for _____

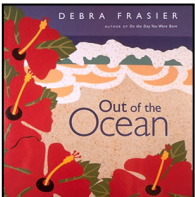

This is a tale of a dog who longs for love, tries to please to earn it, and then, when the thieves arrive, finds that being himself is just enough to save the day. Don't judge a book—or a dog—by its cover!

of copies _____ Please autograph first book for _____

@$18.00 and second book for _____

This modern children's classic welcomes each child to the daily miracles of our planet, including the sun, moon, gravity, rain, trees . . .and the human family.

of copies _____ Please autograph first book for _____

@$7.00 and second book for _____

Turn these pages and walk beside the Atlantic Ocean "finding things," from sharks' teeth to notes-in-a-bottle.

of copies _____ Please autograph first book for _____

@$16.00 and second book for _____

For this recipe you'll need 365 sunrises, a robin's song, plenty of shade, two crisp red leaves, and a few shivers. This book teaches the Earth's seasonal path and daily rotation, all while collecting ingredients for a birthday cake.

Please make checks payable to Highland Elementary

TOTAL _____