

Washington DC Conduct / Behavior Agreement

NAME:

READ CAREFULLY!

I understand that traveling with a large group is quite different than traveling with a family.

I understand that I am representing not only myself, but Scott Highlands Middle School.

I understand that I need to be respectful and listen to all adults leading this trip as well as all adults that provide service to our group.

I understand that I need to be with other people from my group and will never travel alone.

I understand that I will treat all other students with respect and kindness.

I understand that it is important to be on time for breakfast, departure times, and pick up times.

I understand that I need to pay attention, watch, and listen when traveling through airports & other public places

HOTEL:

I understand that I am a GUEST and will respect other guests.

I understand that I am a GUEST and will respect the hotel and it's property.

I understand that I will be in my room at the designated time without argument.

I understand that NO ONE other than my roommates will be in my room at any time for any reason.

I have read and understand the above statements and will be on my best behavior through out my entire trip to Washington DC
